PATRICK DEANE

Patrick Deane first became interested in tokens in 1970 when he started working at Spink and Son Limited when they were coin dealers. He was given the task of running their token department with the help of André de Clermont, who had previously been in charge of it and had an extremely good knowledge of the series.

When Patrick left Spink in 1973 and went on his own as a coin dealer, he started to collect the Eighteenth Century Token Series or Conder tokens as they are known in America, and formed a very good collection with many rare and interesting pieces. By 1984 he had amassed some 1,250 pieces and decided that there was too much competition from other collectors to buy the rarest and best pieces! He priced each piece in the collection and offered the tokens to the four main collectors at that time. They bought about half the collection and then over the next couple of years Patrick disposed of the remaining pieces.

Twenty years or so elapsed before the collection was re-started, when a chance meeting with Paul Dawson of Spink gave him the opportunity to start acquiring some extremely interesting pieces from the Cokayne collection that were appearing on the market at that time. Patrick's enthusiasm for the Series returned and he started to collect again, creating an even larger collection than before, of about 2,500 pieces.

There are many unique pieces including some extremely interesting uniface trial strikings in this second collection.

In the ensuing years the collection grew and Patrick has now reached a stage in his life when he has decided to release the collection and accordingly has chosen to give A H Baldwin's the task of handling the auction sale to disperse this magnificent collection of eighteenth century tokens onto the market.

He hopes that collectors from around the world will be excited by this offering of tokens from his collection and as he says 'there will be something here for everybody to bid on'.

EIGHTEENTH CENTURY TRADESMEN'S TOKENS FROM THE DEANE FAMILY COLLECTION PART II

PREFACE

This is the second of three auctions of the Deane Family Collection of British eighteenth century tokens.

This second part consists of the halfpennies and farthings of all the English counties apart from Middlesex. This county and all the political pieces attributed to London will make up the content of the third and final auction later this year in October.

The second part is his collection of 'Eighteenth Century Tokens' consists of some eleven hundred and fifty coins almost five hundred lots, mostly halfpennies and a few farthings. These tokens are mainly copper with patterns in other metals and presentation pieces in silver. In a time of no official small change in the UK in the last two decades of the eighteenth century, partly due to the war with France, these were the only coppers one would have had one's pocket – so necessary for the day-to-day, small transactions of shopkeepers and merchants. Every English County is represented and this pictorial 'token' coinage reflects most trades and professions, and personal, political and economic aspirations. They are, in short, a marvellous insight into what was going on in early industrial Britain which was also a country at war. They also provide a very interesting local aspect to the many English towns and cities that had their own citizens issuing copper coins.

Of particular note, and once again the hallmark of the pieces offered here, is the 'blue-blooded provenance' of many of the pieces. Many tokens can be traced back to famous collections including John Dudman's (acquired by Baldwins in 1914), Richard Dalton's (sold privately), Frederick Lincoln's (sold by Glendinings in 1934) and of course Francis S Cokayne's.

This latter collector is of particular note as his was probably the most extensive and finest collection of eighteenth-century tokens ever to have been put together. Francis Cokayne began collecting, along with his brother Morton, in the late 1880s. He had the pick of James Atkins' cabinet (see lots 592, 681, 871 etc) and bought from all the noted collectors and participated in every major token auction for some 50 years right up until the mid 1930s. Alfred Baldwin represented him in auction and dealt with a lot – in fact it was a standing rule at Baldwin's 'that staff could not leave on a Friday night until a new parcel of tokens had been posted to Mr. Cokayne's offices at Montagu Square'. Each of his tokens has two tickets written in fountain pen – one with the Dalton & Hamer and Atkins attributions and another recording from whom he had bought it, for what price and what date. Here is a typical example of his ticket, in this case lot no. 943, the Birmingham brass halfpenny of William Hallam, DH 131 which he acquired from the Lincoln No. 1 collection in on the 28th. of May 1934 for 6 shillings (about a day's wage for a labourer at that time). The Lincoln collection had been auctioned by Glendinning's in the previous February and mostly bought by A H Baldwin and Cokayne received it from AHB a few months later.

Baldwin's bought Cokayne's massive collection just after the war in 1946 but unfortunately, shortly after, whilst some building work was being done to their premises, in Robert Street some of the cabinets of tokens 'went missing' and a large portion of the collection was lost. Then, some sixty years later, a lot of Cokayne tokens started appearing on the London market and whilst it is not possible to say that these are specifically those 'lost' tokens (as no record was kept), certainly none of them had been seen on the market since before the last world war. Patrick Deane recognised the importance of these tokens - or particularly their provenance and bought them up wherever and whenever he could in these first years of the present century. The result is this very impressive and important collection of English tokens.

There are many pieces here that are coming onto the market for the first time – or at least not since Cokayne acquired them, there are several Dalton & Hamer plate coins and many pieces that are hitherto unpublished. Probably the most spectacular section is the whole series of trial strikings of the progression of the engraving of the dies to George Barker's second halfpenny (lots 894 to 923). Twenty-nine strikings showing the development of the dies and then specimen and presentation pieces in tin and silver of the completed token – surely the most complete series of the evolution of a pair of dies in existence! In addition, nearly all the pieces in this series have Cokayne tickets with observations written in his hand.

There are a lot of other die trials in this collection which are either unique or known only by a couple or so examples. One particular trial of pattern, the first halfpenny of Daniel Eccleston of Lancaster (lot 728) is particularly interesting, the dies obviously broke in the initial trial and the engraving of the dies had to start all over again – this initial attempt is only known from this on specimen, also the plate coin in Dalton & Hamer.

Another rare group of tokens are the silver impressions of Kempson's Coventry building series. These tokens were essentially sold to collectors – and if they needed to, they could use as a halfpenny. The silver presentation examples are very rare and in this collection there are nine of them.

Lastly, one of the most enigmatic of the pieces in the Deane collection is this Bristol (?) halfpenny (lot no. 838). Who is the portrait of? Is it the chemist J Chester who used this reverse? Did the obverse die break in the trial striking and was the production of this token abandoned? Certainly, there is a nasty obverse die crack which may have quickly led to the die breaking up completely. The token turned up only a few years ago and appears to be unique and is hitherto unpublished – there is more research required on this puzzling halfpenny token.

The edge legend on this coin is made up of individually punched letters and certainly they have not been done in the process of manufacturing the coin - as born witness by the way the edge curls over at each punch. Is this some sort of trial for a possible edge or just someone 'playing around' - or as Cokayne records on his ticket 'a faked edge'? It was certainly done very early in the coin's 'life' so it would not be unreasonable to conject that this is some sort of trial for a possible edge legend.

Eccleston, a retired well-to-do merchant in Queen Street Lancaster, had his own token made and this piece is the unfinished pattern – the dies had not been finally polished and thus the scouring in the fields show in the striking. Even at this preliminary strike the die started to break and the issue never happened. This is the D&H specimen and would appear to be unique. He then had another attempt at having his own token made and the following is the result.

£750-1,250

After the Royalist defeat at Worcester in 1651, the final conflict in the English Civil War, Charles II (to be) fled to a Royalists house at Boscobel. When a Cromwellian search party arrived in the area looking for the Prince, Charles hid in a large oak tree in the grounds of the house. Fortunately for Charles, the roundheads were distracted by an owl flying out of the tree (indicating that up to this point the tree was undisturbed) and from this moment the oak tree became a Royalist icon and badge - supporters of the Royalist cause would wear a sprig of oak to show their allegiance. Within sixty years the tree was thus stripped of all its branches and the present tree, grown from an acorn of the original, is now over 250 years old. This tree was hit by lightning in 2001 and battered by a great storm in 2010 and although it is still standing, is not in good shape and a third generation of Boscobel oak trees are now being grown from its acorns. John Westwood made this token with this popular subject matter to sell to collectors.

Why is this incuse – is it a brockage of trial striking or is this part of the process of producing a finished die ? Die fields very heavily scoured - very interesting piece.

As most of the tokens in this auction came from the missing F S Cokayne Collection cabinets it is highly likely that this piece is also ex Cokayne, even though there are none of his tickets to back this up.

Ex. Simon Monks, Coinex 2007.

This portrait is totally unknown in the whole 18th century token series. The fact that there is no legend on the obverse suggests that it is a trial – did the die immediately break (suggested by the substantial obv. die break after only a trial striking) and the whole project abandoned ? The reverse is known to be a Lutwyche die which was used for the previous Chester token. Is this perhaps a portrait of J Chester, that because the obverse die broke whilst being tried, he abandoned the idea of issuing this halfpenny bearing his bust ?

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. APPLICATION AND CONTRACTUAL RELATIONSHIP

- 1.1. By making a bid, a Bidder acknowledges his acceptance of these Conditions and will be bound by them.
- 1.2. Baldwin's acts as agent for the Seller for the sale of a Lot to the Buyer unless Baldwin's is the owner of the Lot. As such, Baldwin's is not responsible for any default by the Seller or the Buyer.
- 1.3. The contract for the sale of a Lot is between the Seller and the Buyer and is subject to these Conditions and the Seller's Conditions.

2. PRE-SALE AND DESCRIPTIONS

- 2.1. Statements made by us in a Catalogue, during the course of the Auction or elsewhere, describing a Lot including its authorship, origin, age, size, condition, genuineness, authenticity or value are intended as a guide for interested Bidders. These are statements of opinion only and should not be relied on as statements of fact. Illustrations of the Lots are for general identification only.
- 2.2. Lots by their nature are usually aged and varied in condition. The absence of any description of a defect, damage, modification or restoration in any Catalogue does not imply that there are none.
- 2.3. Coins are graded to accepted UK standards to the best ability of our specialists. You acknowledge that the grading of coins is subjective and may vary from specialist to specialist, as the process is by nature an art and not a science. For this reason, we do not automatically accept and are not bound by the opinions of third party coin grading services for any purposes including before and after the sale of a Lot.
- 2.4. If you are interested in a Lot, we strongly recommend that you view it in person before the Auction and form your own opinion of the description of the Lot.
- 2.5. We reserve the right to change any aspect of the published description of a Lot prior to the auction. Any change may be published on our website, displayed at the auction, announced by the auctioneer prior to the sale and/or communicated in any other manner.
- 2.6. All copyright in Catalogues including images belongs to Baldwin's.

3. ABSENTEE COMMISSION BIDS

- 3.1. If you are unable to attend the Auction personally, you may submit a Commission Bid and we will endeavour to purchase the Lot on your behalf for the lowest price possible. You must submit this in writing using the Commission Bid Form and send it to us by post, fax, email or delivery to our offices at least 24 hours prior to the Auction.
- 3.2. For all Commission Bids, you must supply your name and address, contact telephone number and email. You must also provide the Lot number and description of the Lot, the amount of your Bid and any other information requested in the Commission Bid Form or by us. It is your responsibility to provide the correct information and to ensure that we have received your Commission Bid.
- 3.3. We do not charge for this service and therefore we will not incur any liability for executing (or failing to execute) the Commission Bid.
- 3.4. If you submit a Commission Bid verbally (whether by telephone or otherwise), we shall not be responsible for any misunderstandings (by either us or our agents or you) in relation to your Bid. All bids made in this way must be confirmed in writing before the auction.
- 3.5. If we receive two Commission Bids for equal value for the same Lot, the Bid received first by us shall take precedence.
- 3.6. "Buy" commissions [and unlimited Commission Bids] will not be accepted.

4. AUCTION SALE

- 4.1. Before the auction, all potential Bidders must notify their name and address to the auctioneer and if required provide proof of identity to our satisfaction and bank or other credit references.
- 4.2. The highest Bidder for each Lot shall be the Buyer. If there is a dispute, the auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to determine the dispute including re-offering the disputed Lot for sale.
- 4.3. A Bidder must submit a bid for an entire Lot and each lot constitutes a separate sale. The auctioneer shall however have an absolute discretion to divide any Lot, to combine any two or more Lots, or to withdraw any Lot from the auction without giving any reason (including after the hammer has fallen). Bidding shall be regulated at the absolute discretion of the auctioneer. The auctioneer has the right to refuse any bid.
- 4.4. Subject to Condition 4.2, the contract for the sale of the Lot is concluded on the fall of the hammer.
- 4.5. All Lots are offered for sale subject to any Reserve.
- 4.6. You cannot cancel your purchase of a Lot once the hammer has fallen.

5. PAYMENT

- 5.1. The Purchase Price payable by a Buyer is the Hammer Price plus a Buyer's Premium of 20% of the Hammer Price. VAT is payable in addition unless the Lot is exempt or zero-rated.
- 5.2. Any lot marked with G next to a lot in this catalogue denotes the item is 'Investment Gold' and, therefore, a VAT-registered trader can submit a claim to H M Revenue and Customs to recover the VAT element of the Buyers' Premium.

5.3. Any lot marked with a X next to it is subject to import VAT at 5%, this will be added to the hammer price and is payable by the buyer if resident in the UK. If the lot is being exported outside the UK, this import V A T can be waived or refunded on proof of export.

5.4. The Buyer of a Lot shall pay the Purchase Price in full before the Lot can be delivered to the Buyer.

5.5. Except where Condition 5.4 applies, any part of the Purchase Price outstanding after the Auction shall be payable by you within 14 days of the date of the auction, the due date.

5.6. The Purchase Price is payable by you in full. You are not entitled to set-off any amounts that you claim are due from us or anyone else or make any other deductions.

5.7. Unless we have agreed in writing otherwise, you shall act on your own account as principal in respect of the sale and therefore if you accept a commission from a third party to bid on their behalf, you do so at your own risk and will remain personally liable (jointly with your principal) to us for the Purchase Price in accordance with these Conditions.

5.8. The methods of payment and surcharges are set out in the Catalogue.

5.9. If the Purchase Price has not been settled within 30 days of the auction date a £50 late payment fee will be added and interest will be charged at 2% per month from the due date of payment to the date that cleared funds are received whether that is before or after any legal judgment. This is without prejudice to any other rights that we have for non-payment.

5.10. If you fail to comply with your obligations under these Conditions, the Lot, in respect of such non-compliance, may at our discretion be put up for sale at auction or privately and resold. In this case, you will be liable in full and will indemnify us for all losses, costs and expenses (including legal costs) incurred as a result, including the costs of the resale and the amount (if any) by which the Hammer Price obtained on the resale is less than the Hammer Price obtained on the original sale of the Lot to the Buyer.

6. RISK, TITLE AND DELIVERY

6.1. The risk of damage/loss to the Lot will pass to the Buyer on the fall of the hammer. Title in a Lot will not pass to the Buyer until the Purchase Price has been paid in full.

6.2. Unless agreed by us, you should collect the Lot within 7 days of the date of the auction. We reserve the right to charge for storage and to resell by auction or privately without notice to you, if a Lot is not collected. Alternatively we will send the Lot to you by recorded post. Postage and insurance costs will be charged as additional costs.

6.3. Except in relation to Forgeries, you must satisfy yourself that the correct Lot has been delivered to you at the time of collection/delivery. We will not be responsible for any discrepancy which might be discovered after the Lots have been collected. If we have shipped the Lot to you, we will not be responsible for any discrepancies if you fail to notify us within 24 hours of receipt.

6.4. It is the Buyer's responsibility to obtain any necessary import, export or other licences required in relation to a Lot.

7. GUARANTEE FOR FORGERIES

7.1. Baldwin's is a member of the International Association of Professional Numismatists and in accordance with the conditions of membership, provide a guarantee to the Buyer for all Lots against Forgeries on the terms set out in these Conditions ('Guarantee').

7.2. For the purposes of these Conditions, a 'Forgery' means an imitation that has been created with the fraudulent intent to deceive in respect of the authorship, origin, date, age, period and the correct description does not correspond with the description in the Catalogue and as a result has a value significantly less than it would have been had it been genuine.

7.3. You must notify us in writing within one month of you becoming aware that the Lot may be a Forgery. The Lot must be returned to us in the same condition as at the time of sale and you must submit evidence that the Lot is a Forgery, the onus being on you to prove that it is a Forgery.

7.4. You acknowledge that:

(a) we reserve the right to re-assess the Lot or engage at our expense any expert or authority considered by us at our sole discretion to have the necessary expertise to undertake a re-assessment of the Lot;

(b) following our re-assessment of the Lot, you agree to be bound by our decision as to whether or not the Lot is a Forgery.

7.5. You shall not be entitled to a refund for a Forgery if:

(a) the grounds for claiming that the Lot is a Forgery is based primarily on a difference of opinion between us and a third party providing coin grading services;

(b) the grounds for claiming that the Lot is a Forgery is by reason of any damage and/or restoration and/or modification work of any nature;

(c) the description of the Lot in the catalogue was in accordance with generally accepted opinions of numismatic specialists as at the date of publication or the catalogue indicated that there was a conflict of opinion.

(d) it has been proved that the Lot is a Forgery by applying a method that was unavailable or not generally applied within the industry of numismatics as at the date of publication of the catalogue or was disproportionately expensive, in both cases as determined in our absolute discretion.

7.6. If we agree that the Lot is a Forgery then subject to:

(a) you being able to confirm in writing that you can transfer legal and beneficial title to the Lot to us or as directed by us free from all encumbrances or third party claims of any nature; and

(b) the exclusions in Condition 7.7, then the sale of the Lot will be rescinded so that it is cancelled and we will refund the Purchase Price to you in full.

7.7. Your right to return the Lot and receive a refund of the Hammer Price under the Guarantee is your sole remedy against us, our agents and sub-contractors and/or the Seller for a Forgery. You will not be entitled to claim interest on the amount due to you. Neither we, our agents or sub-contractors nor the Seller shall be liable for costs, expenses, damages or any other liability however it arises relating to a Forgery.

7.8. In accordance with the restriction in Condition 10.2, the benefit of the Guarantee is personal to the original Buyer and is not transferable to a new owner of the Lot or any other person.

8. EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY

8.1. Except where these Conditions expressly state otherwise, no warranty is given to a Buyer concerning a Lot and each Lot is sold as shown with all faults, imperfections, errors of description (including authorship, origin, age, size, condition or value) or lack of authenticity or genuineness and neither we nor the Seller nor any of our agents or sub-contractors will be liable for any damages, costs, expenses or any other liability arising out of the same whether or not caused by negligence.

8.2. Our maximum liability under these Conditions is the amount of the Purchase Price paid by you.

8.3. Neither we nor any of our agents or sub-contractors shall be liable, whether in tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty), contract, misrepresentation or otherwise:

(a) for loss of profits or business, depletion of goodwill and/or similar losses; loss of contracts; or

(b) any special, indirect, consequential or pure economic loss, costs, damages, charges or expenses.

8.4. We shall not be liable to you or be deemed to be in breach of these Conditions by reason of any delay in performing, or any failure to perform, any of our obligations in the Conditions, if the delay or failure was due to any cause beyond our reasonable control.

8.5. Nothing in these Conditions excludes or limits our liability for any matter which it would be illegal for us to exclude or attempt to exclude under English law or for our fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

9. DATA PROTECTION

9.1. By agreeing to these Conditions, a Bidder acknowledges and agrees that we will use personal information of a Bidder for the purpose of the auction and ancillary matters, including providing a Buyer's personal details to any other person where necessary to enforce our rights under these Conditions.

10. GENERAL

10.1. These Conditions and the Seller's Conditions constitute the entire agreement between us. All other terms, warranties and representations, express or implied by statute or otherwise are excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law. No variation to these Conditions shall be legally binding unless agreed in writing by us.

10.2. All rights and benefits granted to a Bidder under these Conditions are personal to him and may not be assigned or in any other way transferred to any other person. Any such assignment or transfer will be invalid and unenforceable against us.

10.3. A notice required or permitted to be given by either of us to the other under these Conditions shall, in the case of a Bidder, be to the last address notified to us and in the case of Baldwin's, shall be to its registered office.

10.4. No failure or delay by us in exercising any of our rights under these Conditions shall be deemed to be a waiver of that right, and no waiver by us of any breach of these Conditions by you shall be considered as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision.

10.5. We may perform our obligations and exercise our respective rights through any of our group companies or assign our rights under these Conditions.

10.6. If any provision of these Conditions is held by any court or other competent authority to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, the validity of the other provisions and the remainder of the provision in question shall not be affected.
